

FIGHT FOR PARTY CONTROL NOW ON AT STATE POLLS

Brumbaugh vs. Penrose and Palmer vs. Liebel in Dual Battle

BATTLE FOR DELEGATES

Early morning reports received from various sections of the State indicate that a heavy vote is being polled, and that Ambler is running well ahead of Snyder for Auditor General. We now feel confident that Ambler will come to Philadelphia with 60,000 majority and that he will lead Snyder by like figures in the city. The coal regions are turning out strong for Ambler and he is receiving a tremendous vote from the miners. Early reports from every precinct in Montgomery County indicate that Ambler will have at least 12,000 majority in his native county. Allegedly will give Ambler a substantial majority, while the Speaker will sweep Lancaster, Chester, Berks and other eastern counties.

Statement issued by T. L. Bean, chairman Montgomery County Ambler Committee:

HARRISBURG, May 15.—Controlling organizations of both the leading political parties in Pennsylvania went to the primary polls today to defend their titles.

The movement to wrest the Republican leadership from Boies Penrose, senior United States Senator, is headed by Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh. He is backed by the Philadelphia faction controlled by Congressman William S. Vare and his younger brother, State Senator Edwin H. Vare.

The Democratic side the leadership of National Committeeman A. Mitchell Palmer, former Congressman, is challenged by Congressman Michael Liebel, of Erie.

The Statewide primary law enacted in 1912 was used in a Presidential campaign for the first time today. Only three Presidential candidates are on the preference ballot. The law allows a candidate for national delegates to place himself on the ballot only by securing the "popular choice" for President in his district.

Governor Brumbaugh is the only Republican candidate for President. Not all of the "Brumbaugh candidates" for delegate are pledged. None of the Penrose candidates is pledged. Penrose is making his plea for 76 unpledged delegates.

Allan L. Benson, Socialist, is the other Presidential candidate. Palmer is on the ballot as a candidate for national delegates. He is the only one in Pennsylvania which has rules compelling election of a national committeeman at the party's own convention. He will attend to that at the national convention.

Congressman Liebel personally is running against Palmer.

Both Democrats have a contest for the nomination for United States Senator to succeed George T. Oliver, of Pittsburgh. Judge Ellis L. Orvis, of Centre County, is the Democratic candidate. Judge Eugene C. Bonnell, of Philadelphia, Judge Eugene C. Bonnell, of Philadelphia, the Liebel candidate. Philander C. Knox, of Pittsburgh, ex-United States Senator, ex-United States Secretary of State, will get the Progressive nomination. Mahlon H. Meyers, of Johnstown, will get the Progressive nomination.

Both the Penrose and Palmer organizations declare that they will control the State Committee elected today, consisting of 113 members under the State law. Penrose claims 54 candidates pledged to him and 59 unpledged. Palmer claims fifty-seven.

A light vote is predicted. Voting will require much time. On the Republican ballot, for instance, the voter must pick 12 names, arranged alphabetically, with nothing whatever on the ballot to distinguish Brumbaugh men from Penrose men. The same is true concerning other offices and other ballots.

MAGISTRATE KREIDER, READING, ARRESTED IN ELECTION TANGLE

Doctor Noack, Livestock Board, Also Accused by Ex-Judge Bushong

READING, Pa., May 15.—The most exciting election of today's primary election here was the arrest of Magistrate M. C. Kreider and Dr. Otto G. Noack, member of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, at the instigation of Judge Robert G. Bushong, of the local Orphan's Court, who accuses them of having issued a printed circular for the purpose of defeating him as a candidate for national delegate in today's election.

Magistrate Kreider and Doctor Noack represent another faction in the local Republican party. The circular they are accused of issuing asserts that ex-Mayor Straitan and two of his lieutenants, recommending the election of a ticket composed of Judge Bushong and several others to whom the Kreider-Noack clique is known to be opposed, the incident having been held today as a result of the animosity there may be against the former Mayor and the others mentioned as supporting Bushong. The ex-Mayor disclaims all knowledge of the circular, and warrants against Kreider and Noack were issued by Magistrate Dumm, before whom they entered bail.

HOT FIGHT FOR DELEGATES IN THE LUZERNE REGION

Penrose Candidates Meet Stiff Opposition, But Expect to Win

HAZLETON, Pa., May 15.—Candidates for national delegates backed by United States Senator Boies Penrose encountered strong opposition in Luzerne County and the entire region held today, as a result of the campaign of Governor Brumbaugh last week. As Luzerne County gave Theodore Roosevelt a great vote when he ran for President, the Brumbaugh supporters were hopeful today of making serious inroads against the old Republican "machine."

The Penrose people were prepared for a hard battle and had the polls well manned to overcome the lack of interest apparent among the average voters. The Penrose managers expected to win three to one on the strength of the backing during the first few hours.

In the Hazleton district the Penrose leaders and Democrats were jointly lined up against Representative William Adams, Brumbaugh candidate, for re-nomination to the Assembly, in a three-cornered fight. The Penrose man predicted that Conrad Miller, Republican, of this city, would win both nominations. Griffith Jones, a labor candidate, was the other man in the contest.

At Pennsylvania, of Hazleton, and John H. Baker, of Wilkes-Barre, are the stated Penrose candidates. John H. Baker, of Wilkes-Barre, is the stated Penrose candidate. The same statement is made by Miller as a result of the

"I assume full responsibility for the actions of police and city office holders today," said the Mayor, "and will be in constant touch with Director Wilson. I do not anticipate any trouble, but will be at the office all day long. I am going from my residence home to Broad and Cumberland streets to cast my vote in the 28th Ward. From the polling place I will go direct to City Hall and will keep in touch with the situation from there on. I have gone over the streets and cannot see how the loan bills can be beaten. Everything this morning is quiet and peaceful and I do not believe that any one will start any trouble."

"City officeholders have been warned that they must keep within the Shern law. I have no control over county officials, and what they do is not up to me. I am, however, entirely responsible for city officers, and I mean to see that the Shern law is carried out. The day has started peacefully enough. It looks as though every man knows where he stands. I know my responsibility and my duty and mean to see that laws are carried out."

MY ACTIONS ARE OPEN

"I have told ward leaders that in the event of any trouble they should come direct to City Hall and have things straightened out. With a view to keeping in touch with everything that is going on I have given orders that no engagements are to be made for the day. My actions at all times be available to the newspapers and will through the papers keep the public fully and honestly informed of everything that is going on. My actions are open and aboveboard and I mean to take the public fully into my confidence in the event of trouble. I am saying this with the firm belief that they will get a little or no trouble, but if there is trouble it will be settled without delay."

The "flying squads" of detectives, 130 strong, are kept in line for the primary election division. The lieutenants of detectives, James Scanlon, Andrew Emanuel and Theodore Wood, are in charge of them. They are making constant trips around the city in automobiles.

A special squad of detectives has been placed in West Philadelphia, under the direction of ex-Captain of Detectives Alfred Sroog.

COPS READY FOR TROUBLE

The captains of police have been stationed throughout the city with squads of men, ready to go to the polls in case of trouble this evening, when the count of the vote is started. The chief captain has a squad of 15 men with him.

Captain Kenny is at the 10th and Buttonwood streets station; Captain Mills, 12th and Chestnut streets; Captain Coach, 7th and Carpenter streets; Captain Callahan, Belgrade and Clearfield streets; Captain McFadden, 28th and Oxford streets, and Captain Temperley, 28th and Oxford streets.

Both Senator Edwin H. Vare and Senator James P. McNichol shortly after noon predicted that their respective candidates would win in Philadelphia.

BRUMBAUGH SWEEP, VARE SAYS

Senator Vare, after a tour of all the South Philadelphia wards this morning, predicted a clean sweep for Brumbaugh, Ambler, the loans and the entire Vare ticket downtown. He said that in the 29th Ward the Penrose-McNichol machine has collapsed, and added that "other outfits," the Seger-Trainer combination, had not been able to make good their boast.

"I have just completed a tour of the wards in downtown Philadelphia," he said. "Brumbaugh and Ambler will have a larger majority than any candidates at any election since my brother ran for Mayor in 1912 when he practically had a unanimous vote."

"I get the same information from McKinley, leader in the 33rd Ward, uptown, and from Senator Harry Mackey, of the 28th Ward, who predicted a clean sweep for Brumbaugh, Ambler, the loans and the entire Vare ticket downtown. He said that in the 29th Ward the Penrose-McNichol machine has collapsed, and added that "other outfits," the Seger-Trainer combination, had not been able to make good their boast.

"I have just completed a tour of the wards in downtown Philadelphia," he said. "Brumbaugh and Ambler will have a larger majority than any candidates at any election since my brother ran for Mayor in 1912 when he practically had a unanimous vote."

MENICHOLO CONFIDENT

Senator McNichol based his claims on reports he had been receiving. He said: "Reports that I have been receiving from all over the city indicate that the Penrose candidates are being strongly supported and that they will receive a substantial majority in the city today. Senator Daix will be renominated by a good majority."

Governor Brumbaugh expressed confidence in the results of the election. He said that he had been told that the Vare ticket had a good chance of winning. He said that he had been told that the Vare ticket had a good chance of winning.

In the 37th Division of the 26th Ward he learned that 85 votes had been cast, all for the loans and for Ambler. In the 26th division of the 28th Ward he was told that 120 of 130 votes went for the loans and for Ambler.

In the 35th division of the 26th Ward, 75 votes had been cast. He was informed, all for the loans and for Ambler. In the 39th division of the 26th Ward, the 169 votes cast all went likewise.

In the 1st division of the 28th Ward all but two of 65 votes went for Ambler and the loans. In the 2d division of the 28th Ward the 70 votes went for Ambler and the loans.

A vote for Ambler for Congressman was construed as a vote for the whole Brumbaugh ticket. In the 26th division, early this morning, cast his ballot at the polls at Broad and Cumberland streets. On leaving the polls he said that he had voted for both the port and transit and the general laws and predicted a sweeping victory for both measures. When asked for whom he had voted as national delegates he said, "I don't mind saying that I voted for James Elverson, Jr., John Wannamaker and John J. Moore for delegates. The three men named are on the Penrose-McNichol ticket for national delegates."

CLASHES IN PENROSE WARDS. Trouble started early in the Penrose-McNichol wards, where the contests for control of the election laws that were set in the police and to the political headquarters came from the 4th and 13th Wards, where the fight is the worst.

In the 4th Ward, where State Senator Samuel W. Salus, backed by the Vares and the Mayor, is attempting to overthrow the incumbent, General P. Carranza, for the leadership, Police Lieutenant Eicher-meyer against whom Moore and others have filed charges of political activity, came to the assistance of the Vares after the election was completed by the Vares. The Vares were supported by the various polling places in an unbroken line.

DR. MONTGOMERY WILL RETIRE AFTER 25 YEARS

Resignation From Jefferson Faculty Will Keep Decision to Teach Quarter Century

Dr. E. E. Montgomery, a surgeon of national reputation, announced to friends on his 67th birthday anniversary yesterday that he intended to serve only one more year as a member of the faculty of Jefferson Medical College. His resignation at that time, he said, would be the result of a decision made a quarter of a century ago that he would teach at Jefferson for 25 years and no longer.

When his 68th birthday anniversary arrives he will have been a professor at the institution for exactly 25 years. He has resigned as chairman of the faculty committee on curriculum. This committee devises the course of study, and Dr. Montgomery, believing that he was not justified in arranging a course which other physicians would be called upon to teach, left that place to a younger professor.

Professor Montgomery, explaining his decision, said: "Teaching is one of those things for which a man is fitted only up to a certain age. I think it is wise for any man to quit before his faculties reach a condition which might be unfavorable to that work. I do not intend to abandon the practice of surgery, but merely my teaching work."

Dr. Montgomery is professor of gynecology. Since beginning the practice of surgery he has performed more than 8000 operations, a large majority of which have resulted in the saving of human life. Dr. Montgomery has a genial disposition. It is his custom to remember his patients on their birthday anniversaries, and on other occasions with floral remembrances or by letters.

82-YEAR-OLD MAN A SUICIDE

Misfortune is believed to have caused the suicide of Lewis Johnson, 82 years old, who was found dead in bed today in his room at the house of Harry Huebly, 908 Shackamaxon street, with whom he had lived for nearly a decade. The gas jet was open. Johnson was driven out of business as proprietor of the Shackamaxon Yacht Club in 1906 and it is believed to have preyed on his mind. Huebly is a City Hall guard.

ORDER OF AMERICANS IN STATE CONVENTION

Delegates Assemble at Harrisburg and Nominate Officers

HARRISBURG, May 15.—Members of the Patriotic Order of Americans from all parts of Pennsylvania, convening here today for a two days' convention, were welcomed by Mayor E. S. Meals and State Senator E. M. Baldwin. The Rev. D. E. Gayley, of Oberlin, delivered the opening invocation.

Officers were nominated today and a lively contest has developed between Gilbert Brown, Johnstown; Paul A. Stine, Philadelphia; William Rodewald, York, for assistant state sentinel. The election will be held tomorrow. Tonight the local lodges will entertain the visitors at a dinner and a dance, bringing the festivities to a close tomorrow night.

Fountain for Birds on Her Grave

NEW YORK, May 15.—Mrs. Nellie Hyde Farmer, widow of Erasmus M. Farmer, who died on March 21 at West 102d street, provided in her will, just filed, that a fountain for birds be built over her grave. She asked to be buried in Poutney, Vt.

PRESIDENT WILL PASS ON CARRANZA PLEDGE TO CLEAN UP BORDER

General Scott's Report Will Be Submitted to Cabinet Meeting Today—Of Optimistic Tone

FUNSTON'S NEW MOVES

DOUGLAS, Ariz., May 15.—Factional strife is threatening to destroy the influence of First Chief Carranza in the Mexican State of Sonora. General P. Elias Calles, military governor of Sonora, has refused to accept the authority of Adolfo de La Huerta, the civil governor appointed by Carranza. De La Huerta has returned to Hermosillo to protest to Carranza against the treatment given him by Calles.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—General Scott's report on his border conference with General Obregon, laid before the Cabinet today, led officials here to believe a satisfactory working agreement virtually had been reached between the United States and the de facto Government.

Except for slight uneasiness over the situation at Tampico, the Administration admittedly felt that the Mexican situation, for the time at least, had simmered to the same class with the German situation. Time alone, officials believed, was needed completely to clarify border conditions.

One fact today stood out above all others as a result of the Scott-Obregon talks. This was Scott's positive belief that the punitive expedition has but a single purpose—ending of border banditry.

NO CHANGE OF POLICY

Cabinet members felt the conference, taken as a whole, showed a desire on the part of Carranza and Obregon to assist the American expedition as far as they might.

Nothing in the problem as it now stands gave Cabinet cause for alarm, though certain officials said it was impossible to tell what the political situation within Mexico may develop.

The Administration intends that the forces shall complete their task of running down the Villistas in northern Mexico, and if possible of killing the Bogdallas and Glenn Springs raiders before any withdrawal move is made. This may be accomplished somewhat earlier than anticipated by reason of the promised Carranza assistance.

The Tampico situation is giving officials uneasiness, though there is as yet nothing to show that Americans will be in physical danger.

OBREGON OFFERS MEN

In substance General Scott's report was that General Obregon came to the conference with some misgivings about the situation in Mexico, but had gone away convinced that ending border banditry is the sole purpose of the expedition.

That Obregon had agreed to provide 10,000 of the most controllable Mexican soldiers under General Trevino to patrol the Parral and Big Bend districts.

That Obregon had agreed the Big Bend Carranzistas in Pulpit Pass, which recently gave army men some uneasiness, would not move back of General Trevino's lines.

That the Carranzistas would pursue the Bogdallas and Glenn Springs raiders and attempt to deliver the American captives safely.

Scott's report said that in his judgment the situation was now better than it had been for weeks. For a time, it is admitted, the situation was none too bright, but Scott now believes the affairs in good shape, particularly in view of the pledges, and the fact that Obregon now knows fully the American viewpoint and intentions.

General Scott resumed his duties as chief of staff of the army. He discussed the Mexican situation informally with newspaper men after he reached his office, but would say nothing about his conferences with Obregon, stating that he had made his report to his superiors.

Villa's present whereabouts are not known to any one in either the American or Mexican de facto Governments, General Scott declared. He said General Obregon insisted Villa was dead, though the addition had no actual proof of that. General Scott further said that he believed General Obregon was talking in good faith when he said he believed Villa is dead.

Misfortune is believed to have caused the suicide of Lewis Johnson, 82 years old, who was found dead in bed today in his room at the house of Harry Huebly, 908 Shackamaxon street, with whom he had lived for nearly a decade. WOMAN ALLEGES ROBBERY

Says Customer Knocked Her Senseless and Stole $2 From the Cash Register

Mrs. Anna Miller, who keeps a store at 1761 North 17th street, appeared before Magistrate Imber at Central Police Station with her left eye bruised and bearing other marks of an encounter of which she was the victim. Upon Mrs. Miller's testimony Louis Litherage, who says he lives in Fifth Street, was committed to prison without bail to answer charges of robbery, aggravated assault and battery, attempt to kill and carrying concealed deadly weapons.

Mrs. Miller testified that about two weeks ago Litherage entered her store and while she was wrapping some cinnamon bun he purchased, rifled the cash register. She knocked senseless by a blow from a revolver butt wielded by Litherage. The latter took $2 from the cash register, and ran a negro passerby, who pursued him afoot for some distance, and then continued the chase in an automobile which he requisitioned from the owner, and finally overtook and captured the fugitive.

PENROSE-MCNICHO MEN ARRESTED IN VARE FORT

Police Busy in Wards Where Senator's Workers Are Active at Polls

The arrest of Penrose-McNichol followers and workers in the 4th Ward, where County Commissioner Robert J. Moore and State Senator Samuel W. Salus are fighting for control, and others in the 13th Ward, where the Vares are attempting to overthrow of Select Councilman John F. Eicher-meyer as leader, showed the bitterness of the factional fight at the polls today.

All of the men arrested were taken to City Hall, where they were held under bail for further hearing. Police Magistrate Imber sat in the place of Magistrate Pennoch, who is spending the day looking after the Vares interests in the 4th Ward.

Commissioner Moore signed all of the bail bonds. He was indignant at the "police activities."

"Eicher-meyer is running things with a high hand for Salus," he said. "He is looking up whomsoever he wishes." He said that he would be glad to see Eicher-meyer charged with violating the Shern law, preferred by Moore two weeks ago, was in charge of the police who made the arrests in the 4th Ward.

He confined his activities to the west end of the ward. The polling place at Clarion and Kater streets, in the 17th division of the 4th Ward was the storm center.

Charges were made that Edward Blaustein, an employe in the Department of Public Works, was unduly active. He challenged every Penrose-McNichol voter who appeared, according to the Penrose-McNichol leaders in the ward, and caused most of the arrests. Free use was made of money at this polling place, according to the Moore leaders and workers in the division.

The first man arrested was John A. Cassidy, steward of the Washington Sporting Club, 28 South street, and a Penrose-McNichol worker in the ward, who was charged with violating the Shern law, preferred by Moore two weeks ago, was in charge of the police who made the arrests in the 4th Ward.

Neil Patterson, colored, 1344 Kater street, was arrested at the polling place in the 17th division of the 4th Ward by Police-magistrate Pennoch, on a charge of disorderly conduct. He is a Penrose-McNichol follower. He was held under $300 bail.

Thomas Lonergan, a Penrose-McNichol election officer in the 1st division of the 4th Ward, also was arrested. Vares men alleged that he does not live in that division. He was placed in a cell at City Hall.

John Minor, colored, a Penrose-McNichol worker in the 15th division of the 4th Ward, was held under $500 bail. He was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. According to Policeman Polosky, of the 2d district, Minor was watched by a Penrose-McNichol worker at the polling place and had to be ejected from the polling place twice.

Phillip J. Coyle, of 315 North Franklin street, was held under $400 bail for a hearing Friday. He is a Flaherty watcher in the 2d Division of the 13th Ward. According to the police, he started an altercation with the election officials at the polling place, and was taken to the 34th district station house and locked up.

Wilson was arrested when he interfered in a row between Daniel McBride, a Vares watcher, and Thomas P. Eccles, of 1304 Morris street, a Penrose-McNichol worker, when the latter's vote was challenged.

Several complaints of election irregularities reached the County Commissioners.

TARIFF TO BE ISSUE WITH PREPAREDNESS IN PRESIDENCY BATTLE

Republicans Plan Series of Attacks on Underwood Bill. Democrats to Strike Back

"SPELLBINDERS" CHANCE

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The well-worn, time-honored tariff issue, veteran of many a hard-fought national and political campaign, is to be dragged out of hiding and placed with peace and preparedness among the subjects to be wrangled over during the fall fight for the Presidency. Both Republicans and Democrats today made plans for strengthening their team lines, and for supplying their "spellbinders" with tariff ammunition.

Republican leaders have prepared a series of attacks on the Underwood tariff bill and have started them on their way to the voter by way of the Congressional Record. Various Republican members of Congress have submitted criticisms of the Democratic economic policy through the channel. The speeches will be included in the Republican campaign text and will supply material for the campaign speakers.

President Wilson and his political advisers have determined upon the Administration tariff bill as a bulwark against the Republican tariff attack. Administration leaders would be made to put the bill creating a Tariff Commission through Congress before the Democratic convention convenes at St. Louis. They argue that if the President can "point with pride" in the St. Louis platform the tariff out of politics the Republican tariff attack will do little damage.

Congressional leaders were not optimistic, however, as to getting the bill through in the crowded condition of legislation now pending, and the Democratic plan may not materialize.

Democratic leaders have about decided to make Champ Clark, Speaker of the House, the permanent chairman of the St. Louis convention. They believe that his honor given to the Missouri will do much to head the breach which developed when William Jennings Bryan withdrew his support from Clark and nominated President Wilson, at Baltimore, four years ago. The temporary chairmanship will go to former Governor Martin Glynn, of New York.

MIDVALE PAY RECORD BURNED

Fire in Garage and Office Also Damages Cars

A fire that caused several thousand dollars' damage last night partly burned a garage and pay office of the Midvale Steel Company at Wyncloekton avenue and Bristol street, and a three-ton truck, three touring cars and pay records, which it contained.

Officials said today that there would be no interference with paying the workers. They are paid by the day, and these were the records burned. The garage pay office was a one-story frame building. Flames were seen issuing from the roof of the building. A short circuit of the wires from the storage battery is believed to have been the cause.
